

unscene video – music track listing

unscene – a bike film made by Tom Hodder and Nick Hawker during the 2005 season.

We'd both got pretty fed up over the winter watching Americans fall off cliffs in Arizona to a rap-metal soundtrack, and thought we'd rather be watching something that was slightly more relevant to the type of riding we do here in the UK. So the idea was born - make a UK video, filmed in the UK, with UK riders and a UK soundtrack. Easy!

9 months, 40 hours of tape and 4,000 miles later and the finished disk is sitting on my desk.

We wanted to keep the whole thing down to earth, while still capturing some inspirational riding. We made the decision to concentrate on the UK's best up and coming riders - the guys that go and ride the same woods as we all ride, just a load better. A lot of the names you will have heard of before; Rowan Sorrell, Duncan Ferris, Olly Wilkins, Dan Stanbridge, but you probably won't have seen most of them ride on video. We also believe variety is key to a good video, so we've mixed up the downhill with some street, trails, 4X and BMX.

Hamish Duff, a London club promoter, was called in to source the tunes to match the riding. Again, we wanted to keep it UK and from the smaller labels, and it was great to hear what Hamish came up with. And no, there isn't any rap-metal. unscene features tracks from Aim, Skinnyman, Splitloop, Boca 45, Only Child, Foreign Beggars, Therapy?... I could go on... We hope the soundtrack is worth listening to alone!
